I am Salah.

I've been waiting for this moment impatiently! I studied hard and passed my exams with flying colors. It feels great to be rewarded.

At last, I received my present as an honor student. There must be something special in this box. I can't wait any further. I'll open the box to find out now.

Glasses? That's all? I imagined it would be candy from Uncle Mubarak's shop, a delicious cake from the bakery, or a cinema ticket for the new movie.

I remembered that there were instructions for the glasses, so I put it on. I couldn't believe what I saw. There were strange black creatures in Uncle Mubarak's Shop!

Some strange sounds woke me up late at night. I looked from the window, but I couldn't see anything.

It appears that these creatures cannot be seen without these glasses. There are so many of them, and they keep multiplying. They even maneuver the traps that are meant to catch them.

I'll call them "Trappies," because they know how to avoid the traps.

I left home to have a closer look at these creatures. When I approached them, they gave me the strawberry-flavored candy that I love.

The candy is so tasty! It looks like that the Trappies are friendly creatures.

I went to the cinema. The Trappies were watching the new movie. So I joined them.
Ha ha ha ! ! !
My friends said that the movie is hilarious. They were right about that!

I also found Trappies eating at the bakery. They gave me my favorite cookie, and I ate it.
Yummy!

After I came back home, I starting feeling pain.
Was it my tummy or my heart?
I did not know where the pain came from exactly, but I didn't feel well.

The pain lingered until next morning. On my way to school, I saw a sign on Uncle Mubarak's Shop.
Shop closed. There is a thief in the neighborhood.
Mubarak Shop
What? Is the shop closed because of what I did with the Trappies last night?

Shop closed. There is a thief in the neighborhood.
The bakery is closed too?
It couldn't be closed because of me. I only ate two cookies!

I went to the cinema today to buy tickets for the new movie. To my surprise, the cinema was closed. It appeared to be damaged. Someone must have caused this damage.
Oh!
I didn't mean any harm. I just wanted to watch a movie. Was the cinema closed because of me?

What am I going to do? I must make it right. I have to do something about the Trappies!

I went on knocking on every door, whether it was a shop or a house. I admitted to everyone that I was with the Trappies. I also clarified that I did not mean any harm.

I apologized to everyone. They accepted my apologies. We agreed to address the root of the problem.

I showed them how to use my glasses to find the Trappies. These creatures got what they deserved for their wrongful actions.
